“READY TO FACE THE CHALLENGES OF THE NEW CENTURY”

The first Maris Hotels Conference: “Maris hotels ready to face the challenges of the New Century” took place on Monday 12th February 2001 at the Creta Maris’ New Conference Centre with the participation of management and personnel and was a great success.

In the context of the company’s predetermined policy, the Conference was organized to ensure the ongoing staff education, aiming for perfection in all services provided at every hotel belonging to the chain. Throughout the history of Maris Hotels, the management target has been the best possible quality for all offered services. This is demonstrated by the groundbreaking initiatives which have won our country first place not only in the Mediterranean but in the whole of Europe. Creta maris was the first hotel in the Mediterranean to have gained the International Quality Certificate ISO 9001 and the maris chain was the first to implement HACCP (Hazard Analysis Critical Control Points) guidelines on food hygiene in hotel food preparation, production and conservation. Also the maris chain is one of the three hotel chains (Forum, Inter-Continental Hotels, Maris Hotels) which has gained the Environmental Management System ISO 14001.

The Conference was declared open by the General Secretary of the area of Crete Mr. Athanasios Karountzos, while salutations were addressed by messrs. Zacharias Doxastakis, Mayor of Hersonissos and George Markogiannakis, Mayor of Gazi.
